Day 2: Rafting on the River Katun

The day begins with rafting on the Katun River that gives a lot of vivid emotions for both adults and young travelers, and also allows to capture the beautiful nature of Altai from a different angle.

After finishing rafting, you will go to a local apiary to taste real Altai honey, considered one of the best in Russia.

Then, you will visit the monastery located on the tiny island of Patmos in the middle of the river. Walking up to the island across a wooden footbridge offers truly mesmerizing views.

Return to a guesthouse by the river Katun for overnight stay.

Day 3: Karakol Valley

This day is divided to the visit of the Karakol valley, the sacred land of Altai aborigines. The road to the Karakol Natural Park runs along Chuysky Trakt - one of the most beautiful roads in the world according to National Geographic. Make stops to admire the mighty Seminsky pass, and see firsthand the gorgeous blooming rhododendron, which colors slopes of the Altai mountain landscape in bright pink.

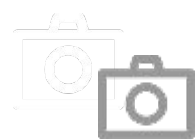

Since ancient times, people have settled in the Karakol Valley, as evidenced by numerous archaeological finds - stone steles - balbals, mounds, sculptures of petroglyphs.

Have Altai cuisine culinary master class, as well as enjoy Kai concert, the traditional Altai throat singing. See megaliths of Altai in Karakol Valley.

Overnight in the Ongudai area in a local guesthouse (authentic wooden house with en-suite facilities)
