Day 1: Simferopol - Bakhchisaray

Arrive Simferopol in the morning. Your guide will be waiting for you in the airport to take you to ancient town Bakhchisaray, capital of Crimean Tatar kingdom (35 km).

Visiting the Khan's Palace which is the only example of the Crimean Tatar palace architecture in the world.

Then, take a part in a Crimean Tatar cuisine master class during which you will know how to cook famous “chebureki” and taste some delicious local specialties for lunch followed by traditional tea of mountain herbs.

Transfer to your hotel and check in. Tonight, stay in Bahitgul hotel built in traditional style.

Sunset photo session: blooming peach orchards located near Bakhchisaray, here we will find the largest gardens of the peninsula. There are a few iconic spots for perfect spring pictures.

Day 2: Sevastopol & Balaklava

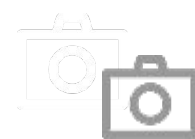

After breakfast, check out and travel just 35 km to Sevastopol - the home of the Russian Navy Fleet. We will pass some beautiful peach gardens along the way too.

Sevastopol city-tour that takes you to the 50s of the 20th century, you will find yourself in Soviet city where times stand still. At the same time, you will see some of the finest examples of the classic Russian imperial architecture of XIX century. Your guide will show not only the highlights, but also hidden gems only locals know about. Take a boat trip in Sevastopol bay along the warships of the Russian Black Sea Fleet.

Travel to Balaklava for a still wine degustation at one of the best champaneries in Crimea - "Zolotaya Bukhta", and try 9 types of local wines. After that you will move to the Balaklava Bay which has inspired many top artists, with its fishing piers and colorful boats. Overnight at the Rota-Shale Marina hotel with a view in Balaklava bay.

Day 3: Palaces and Parks

After breakfast, check out and transfer to Alupka. Visit the Vorontsov palace, built in Neo-Moorish style, and Vorontsov garden with 200 exotic species of trees and shrubs.

You will also visit Livadia Palace, where the famous Yalta Conference with Roosevelt, Churchill and Stalin was held in 1945 when WWII ended.

After that you will move to Yalta, to visit Nikitsky Botanical Garden where tulips festival is held this time of the year.

Then, another wine degustation awaits you at Massandra Winery - one of the most famous in the whole Russia.

You will continue the day with the evening ride to Swallow's Nest castle to view the sunset. Yalta in April is extremely beautiful with blossoming almond, apricot, magnolia and pir.

Overnight at comfy hotel in Yalta with beautiful sea views.

Day 4. Mount Ai-Petri & Grand Canyon of Crimea

Early in the morning we will drive to a famous Ai-Petri peak in the Crimean Mountains to see a magic sunrise. Then, we will walk up in the mountains to see wild peony. There is no better time to see Ai Petri than April. Have your breakfast with magnificent view over Crimea.

Transfer to the Grand Canyon of Crimea. Piling of stone blocks and boulders, numerous rapids and intricate waterfalls, karst baths with emerald water and magnificent cliffs of a large canyon makes this place one of the must sees any time of the year, but in April, with its may-lilies in bloom the Canyon is truly spectacular. Lunch boxes today.

Return to the seaside for overnight stay at your hotel in Yalta.

Day 5 : ATV & Cheese

The day starts with ATV 2-hours ride to Chatyr-Dag mountain, passing by steppe awaking after the winter, rivers and waterfalls will make you simply fall in love with Crimea in spring. Trek is not difficult but you'll be accompanied by the instructor for your safety.

A visit to the farm cheese dairy located in the mountain village will be a great addition to this day full of emotions. Here, we will taste local sorts of goat cheese. (Crimean wines are also served).

Then, we'll move to the town-resort Gurzuf, known as Small Italy of Crimea for its narrow streets, flowering bushes and two-storey houses covered with tiled roofs. During the city-tour you will see Suuk-Su palace, a snow-white building made in the Italian Renaissance style. (If you like Russian classic literature, you'll also enjoy a visit to Anton Chekhov "datcha"). An overnight in authentic Muskatel hotel.

Day 7: Opuksky Reserve, Salt Lake & The Bridge

Early in the morning we we will explore Koyash salt lake, which takes on a pinkish color in the warm season when salt evaporates. If we're lucky, we might get a chance for a good photos at the sunrise

We will find yourself lost in the wild and vast expanses of the Opuksky national reserve to admire the flowering of the Crimean steppe in all its glory (expected to start at the end of March). The yellow-red-purple fields dotted with Shrenk tulips and irises are unique to this region.

Drive to Kerch, another ancient city of Crimea, visiting Turkish castle Eni-Kale, ancient Greek Pantikapei, mythic Mitridat King ladder. Then, we travel to see this famous Crimean Bridge before transfer to airport for your evening departure flight from Simferopol. Alternatively, if you'd like to cross the entire bridge, you may continue the journey to the nearest airports – Krasnodar or Anapa.
