Day 1: Quad Bike Riding & Maral Farm

Arrive Gorno-Altaysk in the morning. Your guide will be waiting for you in the airport to take you to the village of Manzherok, where you will have a quad bike ride along the mountain trails around Sinyukha Mountain and Manzherok Lake stopping at a picnic spot with stunning views of mountain valleys.

Then you will have a ride to the Altai maral farm, where you will see Siberian red deer and taste special tea, as well as other products, made of maral antlers, known for their medicinal properties.

You will also visit the only nursery of purebred European bison, known as zubrs, in Siberia.

After that you will be taken to the Katun River valley. Accommodation in a comfy wooden house in Chermal resort area, with beautiful river views. Russian banya available on request.

Day 2: Rafting on the River Katun

The day begins with rafting on the Katun River that gives a lot of vivid emotions for both adults and young travelers, and also allows to capture the beautiful nature of Altai from a different angle.

After finishing rafting, you will go to a local apiary to taste real Altai honey, considered one of the best in Russia.

Then, you will visit the monastery located on the tiny island of Patmos in the middle of the river. Walking up to the island across a wooden footbridge offers truly mesmerizing views.

Return to a guesthouse by the river Katun for overnight stay.

Day 7: Lake Teletskoye cruise

After breakfast, take cruise to Yaylyu - accessible by water only, this is the unique village, located inside of the Altai National Biosphere Reserve.

On the way, we will pass waterfalls of Estyuba, Kishte and famous Korbu.

In Yaylyu, we will be met by the state inspector of the reserve who will share amazing stories of conservation life, introduce us to the museum of patrol service, talk about very unusual milestones of lake shipping, gardening and christianisation of Altai.

On your return to Artybash, after a short rest, you may experience evening horseback ride around the lake (optional).
